MINISTRY ORDER)

No. 36)

Series of 1978)

SUBJECT: Prior Approval of Appointment
Proposals Under Administrative
Order No. 171 No Longer Necessary

X.X.X.X.X.X.X.X.X.X.X

Pursuant to Letter of Instructions No. 565 which provides specific guidelines in the filling of vacant positions, and in order to give meaning and substance to the declared policy of decentralization as provided for under the Integrated Reorganization Plan, Presidential Decree No. 1 dated 24 September 1972, Letter of Implementation No. 11 dated 1 November 1972 and the Civil Service Decree, Presidential Decree No. 807 dated 6 October 1975, the requirement of approval by this Ministry of proposals for appointment under Administrative Order No. 171, series of 1956, as amended, shall now be dispensed with. Henceforth, all positions created during previous budgetary years and ~~included~~ in the budget program of a given year may now be filled as soon as these are vacated, subject to the usual civil service requirements and any additional qualification requirements that now exist.

This order amends Section 2 of Department Order No. 11 dated 26 March 1976 which shall now read:

"Section 2. EXISTING REQUIREMENTS. - The usual requirements preparatory to issuance of appointments such as those required under Memorandum Circular No. 4, dated April 25, 1978, reclassification action by OCPC of positions shall continue to be complied with until otherwise provided."

This order takes effect immediately.
