DEPARTMENT ORDER NO. 145
Series of 1995

Subject : Rural Infrastructure Fund-Project Management Office (RIF-PMO)
USAID Project No. 492-0420

In view of the termination of the USAID Assistance to the Philippines for infrastructure projects undertaken by the DPWH and the completion/termination of the construction/improvement of USAID funded ports, roads, bridge and hospital sub-projects, the Rural Infrastructure Fund-Project Management Office (RIF-PMO) implementing the USAID funded projects is hereby phased out. The completion of the remaining locally-funded projects still being administered by the RIF-PMO shall be turned-over to the Regional Offices concerned for implementation and all funds for these projects still at the Central Office shall be released to the concerned Regional Offices.

All contractual staff of the RIF-PMO shall be phased-out after giving them due notice but not later than 30 September 1995.

For an orderly close out, the Project Manager shall prepare and submit to the Undersecretaries and Regional Directors concerned the following:

- 1) A copy of a joint (PMO and Regional Office) inventory of all completed, partially completed, and unimplemented projects in accordance with the approved plans by DPWH and USAID together with all approved construction plans.
- 2) A copy of the Project Assistance Completion Report (PACR).

For compliance.
