SPECIAL ORDER)

NO. 105)

Series of 2016)

SUBJECT: Designation of MA. VICTORIA S. GREGORIO as GPPB Recognized Trainor

Pursuant to the Department Order No. 16, series of 2010, requiring members of the BAC Secretariat and Technical Working Group of all procuring units of the Department to undergo training on RA 9184 (Government Procurement Reform Act) conducted by the DPWH, the above-named official and personnel who were previously tasked to conduct the trainings were among those authorized to attend the Trainers' Training on R.A. 9184 and its Revised IRR conducted by the GPPB-TSO.

After having passed the qualification examination and successfully conducted In-House Seminar on RA 9184 and its Revised IRR (Practicum), they were authorized to perform the responsibilities as Recognized Trainers of the Government Procurement Policy Board (GPPB).

As part of their responsibilities and in order to professionalize the procurement process, they shall accommodate training request from different Regional and District Offices of the Department. As required by GPPB in exchange for the Technical Training they received, they are likewise authorized to accommodate requests from other national government agencies, government-owned and controlled corporations, local government units, government funding institutions, and state universities and colleges endorsed by the Technical Support Office (TSO) of the GPPB subject to their availability.

This is issued as a vital requirement in order to be invited by the GPPB for the continuing education and advanced training on Procurement procedures.

Other DPWH personnel involved in procurement shall be sent to future Trainers' Training to be conducted by GPPB and shall be given the same responsibilities once they pass the GPPB requirements.

For dissemination to all concerned.
