December 5, 1980

Dear Mr. Jesus Bigornia:

I am sending you herewith a clipping from the November 28, 1980 issue of the "Balalong", a weekly newspaper published in the City of Naga.

Of particular interest to me is the news item about the Bicol River Basin Development Program Office. I am an employee of a firm doing work for the BRBDPO and I came to know of the gripes of our Project Manager, who claims that payments to our firm are being unduly withheld for no legal reasons, except that our Project Manager had refused to come across a certain sum of money as Col. Balisnomo's cut in the contract.

I find it hard to believe this and, as a matter of fact, I thought that our Project Manager was only making this as an excuse to delay payment of our bonuses.

With the article in the Balalong, I am convinced of the corruption of Balisnomo and his cohorts and, accordingly, I am requesting your help in denouncing these corrupt officials.

I believe that newspapermen, generally, find it easier to be listened to by our government officials like Minister Juinio, for example, than for ordinary citizen like me.

For fear of possible reprisals from people concerned, I would request you to please withhold my name until it becomes absolutely necessary and I am given some assurance that no harm, of whatever form, will come to me on account of this letter.

Very truly yours,

Gloria U. Demafelix

Top officers of the Bicol river basin development program, including Acting Program Director Camilo Balisnomo, were denounced the other day as "the most expensive employees of our government today."

In a signed letter to the Balalong, a BRBDP employee reported that Balisnomo and 6 other officers are getting "thousands of pesos per month from their so-called 'incentive, travel, office and performance allowances' aside from individual gasoline allowances of P500 a day.

The Balalong informant, who asked that his name be withheld for fear of being harmed, called the excessive gas allowances as the most 'chilling' as these are used "every day from Monday to Sunday in the most fraudulent manner."

The same informant fingered Balisnomo and his subordinates — Felizardo Alarcon, Perfecto Bragais, Jr., Marcelo Samson, Onofre Alajor, Pedro Olafio and Peter Jumamil — as "the people who burn P15,000 each, all for nothing."

Girl in case disappears

The widow of Naga businessman Lazaro (Robert) Lee — Mrs. Rita Buena Lee — appealed yesterday to President Marcos and Defense Minister Juan Ponce Enrile for an impartial investigation of the death of her husband at the hands of PC soldiers.

Lee died from one bullet thru the head Monday night (November 24) in San Fernando town in an incident shrouded with mystery and yet to be fully explained by military authorities.

The CSur PC command, more than 72 hours after the killing, has not received any formal written report yet from PC officers assigned to a special strike force that figured in the incident, it was said.

However, a verbal interview by the Balalong with Col. Wilfredo Villanueva, PC provincial commander, elicited the following version:

On November 22, Nandy informed the PC that the Pasacao wedding set November 27 was reset earlier for November 24. From this information, the PC set up a special strike force at the Tambo junction at Pamplona town.

On the night of November 24, between 9 and 10 p.m., a Minica coming from Pasacao "passed through" the Tambo checkpoint, consisting of a dump truck and a Ford Fiera parked across the road.

The Minica sped towards the direction of Naga, at which, the dump truck and Ford Fiera gave chase. The small car was overtaken Billed as Konsiyertong Pamasko ni Imelda Papin, the song-and-dance concert features an entirely new repertoire of stage numbers.

Papin will be accompanied by a troupe of 'surprise celebrities' from Manila's entertainment world, it was said.

The proceeds of the Papin concert will go to the construction of a Press Freedom Symbol marker at Plaza Rizal (a project of the CSur Press Assn.), aid to the Presentacion (CSur) rural health center, and aid to the Pefiafrancia Basilica.

Imelda's first concert appearance here was also a benefit show for the Basilica in September 1980.

employees" were chided for their "temerity to pass themselves (off) as planners" although "they are not (as) they do not even know what developmental planning means."

The informant based his reasons on the fact that "100% of all BRBDP project planning is being done now by contractors" so that it could not be claimed that the basin program office is involved in actual project planning.

He also said, as fact, that 99% of the contractors are Manila-based, and "all have been recommended by Director Balisnomo."

He likewise cited an instance where a governor from a Bicol province allegedly got mad and reportedly still is, because his recommended contractors were 'by-passed' by Balisnomo. Apparently, the provincial governor was concerned over the choice of contractors for projects in his province.

He asked that Public Works Minister Alfredo Juinio stop these Basin officers from their "expensive" planning.

The petition (for lifting of the preventive suspension) alleged that the 2 employees were removed arbitrarily and "in wanton disregard and denial of constitutional due process", and that their suspension and dismissal was "to coerce, intimidate, harass and inflict revenge" when they had called attention to the anomalies and irregularities committed by the members of management and the board.

Among the anomalies cited:

— An overpricing of P8,015 for transporting 1,603 electric poles at P30 per pole from Pasacao port to Naga by the Viva Pefiafrancia Enterprises. Actual canvass price was only P25 per pole. Contract was signed by Engr. Antonio story, retired artillery Col. Enrique R. Alpaño, whom the appellate court restored to his old position as receiver of the park pending the appeal of the decision in a case between its owner and its developer, but found his old office gone — papers, furniture and personnel — yesterday.

All he got was an explanation from Atty. Jose Peñas, counsel for the park owner, Mrs. Irene P. Mariano, that Alpaño had nothing to take over, because nothing had been turned over to him.

In a resolution dated November 24, last Monday, the Court of Appeals appointed the colonel the receiver of the park, "effective immediately", after his receiver's bond of P50,000 was approved. He was first appointed receiver when the case was pending trial in the CrI. After Mrs. Mariano won the decision in the trial court, and while it was pending appeal, Judge Delfin Vir. Sunga ordered the immediate execution of the decision pronounced by Judge Imperial. Rolando Relucio then took over from Alpaño as receiver.

Recently, however, the Court of Appeals annulled Sunga's order and restored Alpaño as receiver.

The park is still there, but Alpaño is still looking for his office.

soaked hand grenade. Also found in the pocket of the dead Lee was a note instructing a "Kasama" to bring a car to Pasacao and "looking forward to your usual support." (This note, it was said, was handed to Lee earlier that day at a Naga billiard hall.)

Information given by Commander Nandy to the PC after the incident said that "Commander Lito left the grenade and the gun with Bert but did not go with the car any more because there was a strange woman (Mila) in the car."

Villanueva's narration of the incident appeared to indicate that the slain Lee had connections with the NPAs. On this, he twice-told the Balalong that the incident was not a case of mistaken identity.

Investigations by the Balalong showed that Aynera, the driver, is presently confined at the CSur provincial hospital after doctors extracted two bullet slugs at his back.

Three persons — Mila de Leon, Rolando Zapata and Josefina Agna — have given statements to the PC, which statements were sworn under oath before City Fiscal Julian Ocampo III. Both the statements of Mila and Zapata narrated their picnic trip to Pasacao beach up to the shooting at San Fernando town. Agna stated that she owns the Minica driven by Aynera.

The telegrams of Mrs. Lee to the President and Enrile bore the same message. It said:

"In behalf my suddenly orphaned five children eldest only 11 years old we urgently pray your Excellency please direct impartial investigation of killing of my husband Naga businessman Lazaro Lee by constabulary soldiers in Poblacion of San Fernando Cam.
