DEPARTMENT ORDER
NO. 222
SERIES OF 1993

SUBJECT: Suspension/blacklisting of E.S. Mallari Trading and Construction

Ernesto S. Mallari doing business under the name and style E.S. MALLARI TRADING AND CONSTRUCTION of DFS, Balanga, Bataan, is hereby perpetually disqualified from entering into any contract in the DPWH and its line agencies pursuant to Section 1 of Presidential Decree 1759 upon recommendation of the Regional Director, DPWH Region III per his letter dated November 8, 1993 to the Secretary for violations of the material provisions of his contract for the construction of Guimba-Cuyapo Road Project, Package GC-4, Nueva Ecija, as evidenced by the following:

1. Longitudinal cracks on concrete pavement;
2. Insufficient and uncompacted shoulder materials; and
3. Length and depth of grouted ripraps were not constructed in accordance with the approved plans.

In addition to the above contract violations, Ernesto S. Mallari is also guilty of submitting spurious surety bond bearing No. G(10) 3-080 of Times Surety and Insurance Co. to guarantee defects in workmanship and materials used in the project.

Since Mr. Mallari is obliged to replace these defective works at his own expense per contract provisions, all concerned are strictly enjoined not to release any sum of money to Mr. Mallari or anybody acting for and in his behalf as such amount shall be used to defray the cost of replacing/repair of the defective works.

For strict compliance.

GREGORIO B. VIGILAR
